

Glenwood Caverns Adventure Park FACT SHEET

ABOUT THE PARK

Located in scenic Glenwood Springs, Colo., midway between Aspen and Vail, Glenwood Caverns Adventure Park is family friendly vacation destination. The Adventure Park features a gondola ride, guided tours of Glenwood Caverns and Historic Fairy Caves, dining, and attractions including an alpine coaster, 4-dimensional theater, giant swing, laser tag, a climbing wall, gemstone sluice box mining and bungee trampolines.

BACKGROUND

Glenwood Caverns originally opened to the public as the Fairy Caves in 1895, but closed at the onset of World War I. The caves were closed for 82 years until owners Steve and Jeanne Beckley reopened the caverns in 1999. The Beckleys have employed rigorous, contemporary, scientific preservation methods to protect the living and historic sections of the caves. Glenwood Caverns was named one of The 10 Great Places to Go Underground by USA Today, as well as being named Best Family Cave Tour by Denver Westword. Over the years, the Adventure Park has grown to include a wide range of activities and attractions.

AMENITIES

Glenwood Caverns and Historic Fairy Caves — Visitors can tour Glenwood Caverns and Historic Fairy Caves, recognized as one of the leading family cave tours in the country. With three guided tours that range from mild to wild, there's a chance for everyone to experience some of Mother Nature's finest handiwork.

Thrill Rides — The Canyon Flyer — the first alpine coaster in Colorado — features individual cars on tracks that race through the trees and down the mountainside. Demon the Mechanical Bull bucks and whirls for a rodeo thrill, and for the truly adventurous, the new Giant Canyon Swing launches riders out over Glenwood Canyon, 1,300 feet above the Colorado River.

Attractions — The 4D Ride Theater — Colorado's only 4-dimensional theater — combines digital 3D films with interactive seats and special effects that makes the audience feel like a part of the show. The Iron Mountain Tramway travels 4,300 feet up the side of Iron Mountain, providing panoramic views of Glenwood Springs. Other attractions include a laser tag arena, bungee trampolines, cave simulator, electronic shooting gallery, giant maze, climbing wall, sluice box gemstone mining and simulated Conestoga wagon ride.

Souvenirs — Guests can take home reminders of their visit from Silk's Saloon Olde Tyme Photos, the General Store Gift Shop and Sharp Shooters Photos.

Mountain-top Dining — The Lookout Grille offers burgers, salads, sandwiches, wraps, nachos, a great kids' menu and incredible views; menu varies throughout the year. The Snack Shop features casual outdoor dining during the summer months.

Groups — The Adventure Park offers affordable packages for group and company picnics, family reunions, birthday parties, and school field trips.

Events — Special events include an annual Easter Egg Hunt, Summer Kick-Off Party and Music on the Mountain concert series.
